Being a Blessing

For each of the following situations, think of at least two ways that you could be a blessing for others.

Your mother has had a hard day at work and is tired. She is making dinner now, but the phone keeps ringing and your younger brother wants attention.

Mr. Hatsumi, who lives next door, has a broken leg. He has a hard time walking his dog and taking his trash to the curb. No one ever visits him.

Your best friend is sad and upset because his hamster died. He doesn't want to play or talk on the phone.

Your teacher introduces a new student, Bryn, to your class. Bryn doesn't know anyone to sit with at lunch and doesn't know where to catch the bus to go home.
